Arangola 2023, a vibrant folk arts festival, was meticulously organized by the Folklore Club of Henry Baker College, Melukavu, in collaboration with the Kerala State Folklore Academy. This event, which took place on March 23, 2023, garnered enthusiastic participation from Melukavu Gramapanchayath, Kudumbasree, and the wider public. Its primary objective was to raise awareness about the beauty and significance of folk traditions and arts.

 Approved by U.E.I. under 2019 & 2020 & Accredited by NAAC, A++ Grade
 An ISO 9001:2015 Certified Institution (2015) by Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam

About the College
 Henry Baker College, Melukavu is Christian, Minority, Co-educational, Government Aided Arts and Science College established in 1981. The college is named after Rev. Henry Baker (Dr.), the pioneering CMS missionary, often known as the Apostle of the Hills, who led the people of this locality from darkness to light. It is owned, managed and run by the Henry Baker Educational Society of the C.S.I. East Kerala Diocese and is instituted to impart quality education primarily to the marginalized and the voiceless sections. The college was founded in 1981 by the C. S. I. Madhya Kerala Diocese providing two year Pre-Degree Courses of Kerala University. Later on, the College was permanently affiliated to Mahatma Gandhi University in 1983, upgraded in 1991 and became a first grade college in 1999. Special consideration is given to the students of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, to prepare them light a beacon of humaneness in this turbulent age. It has moulded the destiny of hundreds of people for a better tomorrow and has emerged as a leading centre for teaching, learning and research in the field of higher education. The college is an ISO 9001: 2015 certified institution and accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade in 2021.

Kerala Folklore Academy
 Kerala Folklore Academy, an independent center for cultural affairs, was established on 28 th June 1995. The main objective of the Academy is to promote and protect the traditional art forms of Kerala. Kerala Folklore Academy, an autonomous center for cultural affairs, is located in Kannur District Kerala. The institution was constituted by the Government of Kerala and works under the Cultural Affairs Department, Government of Kerala. The institution provides financial assistance of folk artists. Economic aid programs and academic programmes are conducted to promote the traditional Kerala art forms. The institution was formed under the Travancore Cochin Literary, Scientific and Charitable Societies Registration act of 1955.

The festival commenced at 10:30 a.m. in the college's auditorium, by the welcome note of Dr. Beena Paul. The programme was inaugurated by Sri. O. S. Unnikrishnan, Chairman of the Kerala State Folklore Academy, Kannur. He eloquently articulated the academy's core mission, emphasizing its commitment to promoting and preserving the traditional art forms of Kerala. The academy's support for folk artists, and economic aid initiatives were highlighted as integral components of this mission.

Dr. Gireesh Kumar G S, the college principal, presided over the event and conveyed the importance of organizing such a folklore festival. He underscored the necessity of revitalizing the concept of folklore not only among college students but also within the broader community. Dr. Aju K Narayanan, Dr. Soumya Paul, and Sri. Sunny Mathew, PTA Vice President, extended their felicitations. Dr. Nisha Joseph, the Programme Coordinator, concluded this segment with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants and supporters.

Thamber Performance

The Ebenezer Team from Melukavu showcased 'Thamber,' the traditional percussion of the Malayaraya tribes, with a performance by 15 artists, offering a unique cultural experience.

Thamber Performance

The evening session, starting at 7 o'clock, featured a spellbinding Padayani performance by Sreedevi Padayani Sangham, Elanthur. Padayani, a traditional folk dance performed at Bhagavathi temples in central Kerala, holds deep cultural significance as a form of Dravidian worship. Seven artists presented this captivating art form.
