

Programme under the Collaboration of Department of Physics Henry Baker College, Melukavu & St. Thomas College, Ranni

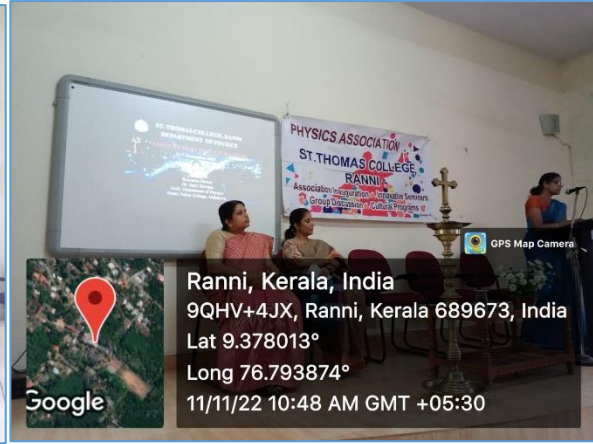

A Memorandum of understanding (MoU) between Department of Physics, Henry Baker College, Melukavu and Department of Physics, St. Thomas College, Ranni has been signed on 24/02/2022 expressing their mutual interest in engaging themselves in academic cooperation. The areas of cooperation may include research collaborations, faculty exchange, teaching and sharing academic resources, joint guidance of project work carried out by undergraduate and postgraduate students at partner institutions. During the academic year 2022-23, following activities have been carried out.

Invited Talk

Dr. Jincy Devasia, Assistant Professor, Henry Baker College, Melukavu delivered an Invited Talk at St. Thomas College, Ranni on “Space Debris- an imminent threat to active and future space missions” on 11/11/2022.

Brochure of the event

Invited lecture by Dr. Jincy Devasia at St. Thomas College, Ranni on “Space Debris- an imminent threat to active and future space missions”

Workshop participation

Adikiran Johny, III B. Sc. Physics, Henry Baker College, Melukavu attended online “Data Analysis” workshop using the data available with SDSS sky server organized by Dept. of Physics, St. Thomas College, Ranni.

em
PRINCIPAL
HENRY BAKER COLLEGE
MELUKAVU