SUPPORTING THE UNDERPRIVILEGED SECTIONS OF THE SOCIETY

For the past five years the overall percentage of students belonging to Marginalised and Minority Communities (MMC) is 90.45. We have put a great effort and special care to the academic and personal development this major slice of our student community. Their performance in academic and co-curricular activities bear witness to the consistent effort of the college.

Consolidated Results of Students belonging to MMC

Year	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020
No of Students Appeared	119	101	123	125	82
No of Students Passed	78	67	99	82	53
Percentage of Pass	65.54	66.33	80.48	65.6	64.63

The special attention and care given to the socially and economically backward sections is evident in their performance in examinations. The academic excellence of the students of the MMC is evident in the Ranks they have secured in University examinations. During the last five years students of Henry Baker College have bagged 16 Ranks in various University examinations. Of these 15 Ranks belong to the Marginalized and Minority Communities.

Princy Mathew who got the III Rank in B. A. English Examination, March 2018 belongs to the Scheduled Tribe Community.

THE FIRST GRADUATE FROM KURATHIKUDY TRIBAL SETTLEMENT

It is with great pride that we record that the first graduate from Kurathikudy, Mr. Santhosh Kunjumon was a student of Henry Baker College. He was in our B. A. English Programme during 2013-2016. Santhosh Kunjumon is instrumental in promoting our developmental activities at Kurathikudy Tribal Settlement. He also takes classes for the youth in this settlement, as part of our training programmes for the youth.

YOUNG MALAYALAM POET FROM KURATHYKUDI TRIBAL SETTLEMENT

Christy Elakannan

Another significant thing about our association with Kurathykudi Tribal Settlement is the presence of the young poet, Christy Elakannan, who belongs to Kurathykudi at our campus.

Christy Elakannan is our current student who pursues B. A. Programme in History. Many of his poems are published in online and are widely read.
